Celebrating 25 Years

Royal Irish Tours (RIT) is Canada's leading tour operator to Ireland and the UK, proudly offering authentic, immersive travel experiences since 2001. With deep roots in both countries and a passion for personalized service, RIT specializes in expertly crafted vacations that connect travelers with the rich culture, history, and beauty of the Emerald Isle and beyond.

Here's a little history about how we got here:

1970's

Ian's Entry into Travel

An early passion takes flight—Ian begins his travel career in Ireland, selling trips to Canada—a fitting start to a lifelong journey across both countries.

1988

A New Chapter in Canada

Ian moves to Canada with his Canadian wife Tricia and young son Conor, laying the foundation for a new life and career abroad.

1990's

Family on the Castle Steps

The growing Duffy family pictured together—all four kids, who are now actively involved in the business today.

1990's

Early Days in Canadian Travel

With Sunquest and other ventures, Ian dives into the Canadian travel scene, building experience and connections.

2001

RIT Opens

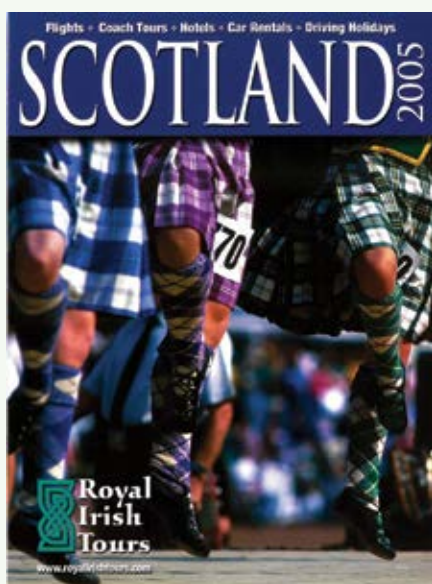

In 2001, Royal Irish Tours is born—blending Irish heritage with Canadian spirit to create something truly unique.

2016

Dublin Office Opens

In 2016, Ian's son Ronan returns to Ireland to establish the Dublin office alongside General Manager Dee, strengthening ties to home and building on-the-ground support.

2005

Expansion to the UK

The vision grows beyond borders, as the company expands into the UK market, reaching new travelers.

2024

Annual Staff Trip

A proud team moment—staff gather at the prestigious K Club, celebrating milestones and shared success.

Dear Traveller,

As we proudly celebrate 25 years of Royal Irish Tours, we're filled with gratitude for the opportunity to share our passion for travel with you—our fellow adventurers and loyal travellers.

Since 2001, it has been our honour to offer unforgettable holidays across Ireland, Scotland, England, and Wales. What began as a family dream has grown into Canada's leading tour operator to Ireland and the UK—still 100% Canadian owned and operated, and still rooted in the values that started it all: personal service, authentic experiences, and a deep love for the destinations we share with you.

Inside this brochure, you'll find a carefully curated selection of first-class coach tours, scenic rail journeys, guided adventures, and self-drive getaways—all designed with care by our passionate teams in both Canada and Ireland.

As we look ahead to this exciting 25th season, we invite you to explore the possibilities and create new memories with us in 2026.

Thank you for being part of our journey.

Yours in travel,
The Duffy Family

BALANCE OF PAYMENT

The full and final payments are due no later than 60 days prior to departure. For client protection, RIT does not retain credit card information, therefore we require final payment be called in when due. The final payment due date is noted on our invoice.

CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS

RIT will accept the following credit cards: Visa, MasterCard or American Express for deposits and full/final payments. Your authorization to use your Credit Card number for deposit and/or final payment indicates your compliance with our booking terms and conditions, whether or not you have actually signed the appropriate draft. Verbal authorization of your Credit Card confirms your reservation.

CANCELLATION POLICY

Unless otherwise indicated, cancellation charges depend on the length of time prior to departure that written notice is received by RIT.

CHANGES/AMENDMENTS

Changes to a reservation will incur a minimum charge of $100.00 per file. However, there will be no changes accepted within 30 days of departure.

BAGGAGE ALLOWANCE

Unless otherwise noted on individual airline/tour operator documentation, each person is entitled to one piece of checked baggage with a total weight of 23kg (50lbs). Unless insured, all baggage remains at the owner's responsibility throughout the trip. Note: On coach tours it is recommended only to take one piece of checked luggage due to limited space on the coach. Although every effort is made to handle passengers' luggage as carefully as possible, RIT Vacations is not responsible for and does not assume liability or accept claims for loss of or damage to luggage due to breakage, theft or wear and tear through airline/airport, hotel and group carrier handling. It is recommended that you have insurance to cover these eventualities. Inquire with your agent for insurance to cover these risks.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTATION

Tickets are sent to the travel agents/ clients three weeks prior to departure providing full payment has been received. Bookings made less than 14 days prior to departure will be sent electronically.

PRICING

All prices in this brochure are quoted in Canadian Dollars. These prices are effective at the time of publication of this brochure and are subject to change without notice. Prices quoted are based upon costs at time of printing such as fuel costs, rates of exchange, tariff revisions, and government taxation, etc. Should any cost increase, we reserve the right to adjust brochure prices, up until the day of departure, even if full payment has been received.

ITINERARIES, ACCOMMODATIONS AND CAR RENTALS

RIT reserves the right to cancel a tour or modify the services by substituting a comparable or higher quality accommodation or service. In the event of cancellation or modification of service/accommodation, RIT will have no responsibility beyond the refund of all monies paid by the passengers to RIT constituting full settlement. Once you have departed, if you decide to change hotel, return early, delete any provisions, or change your flight, you do so at your own expense and with the knowledge there will be no refund for unused services. If you check-out from your hotel earlier than originally reserved, the hotel will charge a no-show fee. Passengers are requested to reconfirm departure time at least 24 hours in advance. Car rental companies reserve the right to substitute cars for other models in the same category.

COACH TOURS

In the event of low demand, a smaller coach or minibus may be substituted. In some cases it may be necessary to substitute some of our regular hotels.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

All passengers must travel with a valid passport. It is the passenger(s) responsibility to obtain at the passenger(s) own expense all documentation required by all relevant government authorities. We suggest that prior to departure, the passenger(s) ascertain(s) the documentation required. In the event the passenger does not possess the proper documentation required, be aware that the carrier(s) reserve(s) the right to refuse the passenger(s) and no refund will be permitted. It is imperative that you check visa requirement for all of the destinations you will be travelling to or transiting through.

PHYSICALLY CHALLENGED

RIT cannot guarantee that destination airports, transfer vehicles and accommodations will be wheelchair accessible. Services for wheelchair confined passengers are not included in the prices.

SPECIAL REQUESTS

If you have any special requests, you must ensure it is clearly advised of at the time of booking. We will endeavour to pass on all such requests on to the relevant supplier. However, we cannot guarantee that any special requests will be met and failure to do so will not be a breach of contract on our part.

LIVING STANDARDS

Consumers are asked to bear in mind and accept that living standards, local customs, as well as the provision of utilities, services and accommodations may vary from those with which they are familiar with in Canada.

CONTRACT

The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the province of departure from Canada.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

RIT strongly recommends that you purchase Travel Insurance. Unexpected emergencies or illness can cause you to cancel or interrupt your vacation resulting in financial loss. For full details on insurance options please contact your travel agent or RIT.

ROYAL IRISH TOURS RESPONSIBILITIES

RIT does not assume responsibility for any claims, losses, damages, cost or expenses arising out of personal injury or death, loss of employment, upset, disappointment, distress or frustration, whether physical or mental resulting from any of the following:

1. Any negligent act or omission by the airline or other suppliers or their personnel or any company or person not under our direct control.
2. Government actions, weather, equipment failure, labour disputes, sickness, epidemics, pandemics, theft or any other cause beyond our direct control.
3. Failure of the passenger to obtain the necessary documentation to travel.
4. Failure of the passenger to arrive at the airport on time the day of departure, or missed connections.
5. The need for us to change itineraries or substitute accommodation or services provided that every effort is made to supply the most comparable service and accommodations available.
6. Cancellations of a flight or tour by RIT, provided that full refund on all monies paid is made to the passenger.
7. Photographs appearing in the brochure are representational, this is not a guarantee that everything will be as depicted at your intended destination.

CLAIMS

Baggage claims must be made before leaving the airport—claims will not be honoured after such time. All claims of any other nature must be made in writing within 30 days of the return flight to:
