Day 1 Thursday

Belfast

Depart Dublin and visit the ancient monastic ruins of Monasterboice, followed by an Irish Coffee experience at Hinch Distillery. Continue to Belfast for a panoramic city tour, exploring its fascinating history and political murals.

Dinner/Overnight—The Bedford Hotel, Belfast

Day 2 Friday

Belfast

Discover the fascinating story of the world's most famous ship at Titanic Belfast. Spend the afternoon exploring Northern Ireland's vibrant capital at your leisure, perhaps visiting St George's Market, the Ulster Museum, or enjoying its lively pubs.

Overnight—The Bedford Hotel, Belfast

Day 3 Saturday

Derry

Travel along the spectacular Causeway Coastal Route to the UNESCO-listed Giant's Causeway, famous for its dramatic basalt columns. Continue to the clifftop ruins of Dunluce Castle for a guided visit before arriving in historic Derry.

Overnight—Everglades Hotel, Derry

Day 4 Sunday

Derry

Explore Derry's historic 17th-century walls on a guided walking tour, uncovering the city's fascinating past. After some leisure time and an early dinner, experience the spectacular Derry Halloween Festival, featuring illuminated parades, costumes, live music and street performances.

Dinner/Overnight—Everglades Hotel, Derry

Day 5 Monday

Monaghan

Journey south to the spectacular Marble Arch Caves, exploring an underground world of rivers, caverns and limestone formations. Continue to the beautiful Castle Leslie Estate in Monaghan, with time to explore the grounds before dinner.

Dinner/Overnight—The Lodge at Castle Leslie, Monaghan

Day 6 Tuesday

Dublin

Discover the fascinating history of Castle Leslie Estate before visiting Newgrange, a remarkable prehistoric passage tomb older than the Egyptian pyramids. Continue to Dublin, where an evening Ghostbus Tour reveals the capital's haunted history and chilling legends.

Overnight—Camden Court Hotel, Dublin

Day 7 Wednesday

Dublin

Enjoy a leisurely day exploring Dublin's iconic attractions, from Trinity College to the Guinness Storehouse. This evening, uncover chilling tales on a haunted walking tour before celebrating your Irish adventure with a farewell dinner and traditional live music.
